January 7 -- Feast of the Epiphany

Epiphany

Look!

*Look up, Jerusalem!
Here comes the world
running to walk in your light.*

*We are the sparkling and the dim,
the kings and the beggars,
the border agents and
the undocumented.*

*Lord,
shine your light on us all.
May your star
chase away our darkness
and fill us with your radiant love.
Make us your epiphanies
overflowing with wonderful care
for each other.*

SET YOUR FAITH ON FIRE

...My daughter has set my faith on fire because of her desire to learn more about our faith.

first.

...My parents have helped me set my faith on fire by being good role models.

How Great Is Our God!

*You do not need to know precisely what is happening, or exactly where it is all going. What you need is to recognize the possibilities and challenges offered by the present moment, and to embrace them with courage, faith and hope.
(Thomas Merton)*

THE LORD'S LAUGHTER – Thanks for the electric guitar you gave me for Christmas," little Chris Cody said to his uncle the first time he saw him after the holidays. "It's the best present I ever got."

"That's great," said his uncle. "Do you know how to play it?"

"Oh, I don't play it," the little fellow said. "My mom gives me a dollar a day not to play it during the day and my dad gives me five dollars a week not to play it at night." (ChristiansUnite)

SUNDAY REFLECTIONS

On this Sunday of Epiphany, Isaiah calls across the millennia to praise Jerusalem and extol the hope that it represents for the world. Today, Isaiah might praise us for all of the wonders we do: for our lofty buildings, our mastery of the skies, our miracles in medicine, and the places where peace still hangs on.

Pope Francis envisioned a clearer epiphany when he said in 2013: "In a world where there is so much wealth, so many resources to feed everyone, it is unfathomable that there are so many hungry children, that there are so many children without an education, so many poor persons. Poverty today is a cry. We all have to think if we can become a little poorer, all of us have to do this."

Including Youth:

Gentiles were "the others," in the usual mentality until the initial community of believers realized the universality of Jesus' mission. Unfortunately, at parish liturgies, it's easy for youth to feel like "the others," in comparison to the assembly of adults – the ones who really belong and run the church – as sometimes evidenced by their standing in the back of the church.

But the Magi, central characters in the Gospel, were unconverted Gentiles. Ephesians makes it clear that Gentiles are "coheirs, members of the same body." We need to acknowledge youth now – as distinct from waiting until they become 20- or 30-somethings.
