December 9 – Second Sunday of Advent

A WAKE-UP CALL

Advent is the Church's world-wide retreat in preparation for The Birth. It now begins its second week. This is the quiet time, the greatest contrast with our culture's turbulent consumerbonanza.

Will you let Him be born in you this year, a little more than in the past? Are you willing to let your insides stretch wider than ever before and so make room? Will you let God's depths be a deep part of your soul this Advent? This is the meaning of Advent.

"Prepare the way of the Lord" inside yourself. Rely on the tender care of God and of His mother. Allow them to help you this Advent Season. (Reflections from Fr. John Foley)

THE LORD'S LAUGHTER – A company hired a very energetic and ambitious man as the new CEO. The new boss was determined to rid the company of all slackers.

Touring the facility, the CEO noticed an idle young man leaning against a wall. The room was full of busy workers, and the CEO wanted to let them know that he meant business.

"You're fired," the CEO told the young man. "Pick up your pay and get of out here and don't come back."

Pleased with himself, the CEO then looked around the room and asked, "Does anyone want to tell me what that goofball did here?"

From across the room a voice said, "He was the pizza-delivery man from Domino's." (via Risa Samra, Saginaw, MI)

SUNDAY REFLECTION

Today's Gospel has a date stamp on it. The 15th year of Tiberius Caesar's reign began in 29 C.E. Since we mark time from Jesus' birth, both John and Jesus were just turning

30 and ready to begin their ministries. John was the herald in the desert and his mission was to announce Jesus. Using the 800-year-old words of the prophet Isaiah: "Prepare the way of the Lord."

Those ancient words from Isaiah still speak to us today as we prepare the way of the Lord through the season of Advent. Once again on Christmas Eve, we welcome the newborn King into our hearts and lives.
