

Holy Week 2020

This Holy Week is like no other Holy Week in our lives. Rather than coming together in our church to celebrate these holy days, we unite with one another in mind and heart as we ponder and live this Holy Week in our homes. We REMEMBER and PRAY as individuals and as community. HOLY, HOLY, HOLY...is the Lord our God!

PALM SUNDAY

Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Hosanna!
Lord God, give us the grace today
to walk the passion slowly and reverently.
Give us the courage to hear your passion
as though for the first time.

Rejoice, all who are *thirsting, longing,
searching, hoping, waiting, and calling,
for the Lord is close at hand!

GOOD FRIDAY

In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God
and the Word was God.
In tangled thorns he emptied himself,
pouring out grace on all of us.

Christ, led to slaughter,
bearing our torment, wearing our guilt,
and crushed for our sins.
Behold the love of God.

HOLY THURSDAY

"I Have Given You an Example to Follow."

A little girl by the name of Colleen read an essay about an unusual event to the class. She began, "Daddy fell into the well last week..." The teacher interrupted her with, "Oh my goodness! Is he all right?" Colleen replied, "He must be. He stopped yelling for help yesterday."

Lord, you have commanded us to care for one another in their daily needs. Grant us the strength to wash the feet of our brothers and sisters, and the humility to let our feet be washed in return.

"Comfort, give comfort to my people," says our Lord.

EASTER SUNDAY

Love of Jesus, fill us.
Joy of Jesus, surprise us.
Peace of Jesus, flood us.
Light of Jesus, transform us.
Touch of Jesus, warm us.
Strength of Jesus, encourage us.
In your Risen Life, take us with you,
for the love of you and of your world.
Amen.

The Lord is truly risen, alleluia.
To him be glory and power
for all the ages of eternity, alleluia, alleluia.

"Thanksgiving Should Be the Constant Refrain of our Hearts." (Sr. Melanie Svoboda)

Dear Parishioners,

I pray you and all your loved ones are doing well in these difficult times. I came across this quote last week causing me to ponder how important the gift of gratitude is in our lives. I once read a Guideposts story about a woman who would thank God each night for three gifts she was grateful for that day. Even while grieving the death of her husband, coping with the murder of her daughter-in-law and grandchildren, and finding out it was her only son who committed this tragedy, she never went to sleep without first speaking her words of gratitude to God.

May we together as brothers and sisters in Christ speak words of gratitude before falling asleep each night. Some nights I thank God for the texts, phone calls, cards, and offers to run errands that have come from my "flock."

I am likewise grateful for the collection envelopes that continue to come in the mail. They are needed, so if you are able, continue to mail them to our address.

Peace and All Good,
Sister Shirley
