

January 20 – Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

JESUS DID THIS AS THE BEGINNING OF HIS SIGNS AT CANA IN GALILEE AND SO REVEALED HIS GLORY.

*"They have no wine."
"So what?"*

*"Do whatever he tells you."
From that instant she left it to him.*

*To us:
"Do whatever he tells you."*

*"Love God,
love your neighbor,
make a home for the Spirit."*

Help us leave everything to you, Lord.

*We are water.
Turn us into wine.*

PARISH SUPPORT

NO REPORT - NO MASSES LAST WEEKEND

"You clash with the character of one person or another...It has to be that way – you are not a dollar bill to be liked by everyone. Besides, without those clashes which arise in dealing with your neighbors, how could you ever lose the sharp corners, the edges – the imperfections and defects of your character – and acquire the order, the smoothness and the firm mildness of charity, of perfection? If your character and that of those around you were soft and sweet like marshmallows, you would never become a saint."
~ St. Josemaria Escriva

Thank You, God, for the Gift of Life!

COFFEE TALK TODAY!

*"Reflections on 'Faith,
Hope, and Love'
Theme"*

SPEAKER: FR. DAN BEDEL

WHEN: THIS SUNDAY,
JANUARY 20, 3:00-4:00 PM

WHERE: ST. MAURICE
PARISH HALL

Father Dan gave a Parish Mission at St. Maurice that was very well received. I'm sure his talk on this year's theme will also be excellent.

STEWARDSHIP – In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Corinthians (and us) that all of our gifts are from God and that they are given, not for ourselves alone, but for the common good. But the generosity of God knows no limits – the miracle at Cana reminds us that whenever we faithfully do as God asks, He can change our gifts of water into wine!

SANCTUARY LIGHT – The sanctuary light will burn January 20-27 for Ben Lamping.

UNITED CATHOLIC APPEAL – "ALL for the SAKE of OTHERS." Another report will be given on this in the January 27th bulletin.

CONGRATULATIONS – We congratulate Mary McCoy on being inducted into the Ripley County Basketball Hall of Fame Class of 2019.

PARISH COUNCIL – Members of the Parish Council will meet this Thursday, January 24, 7:00 PM, in the St. Francis Room.

FINANCE COMMITTEE – Finance Committee members will meet on January 31 and not February 7th for their next meeting.

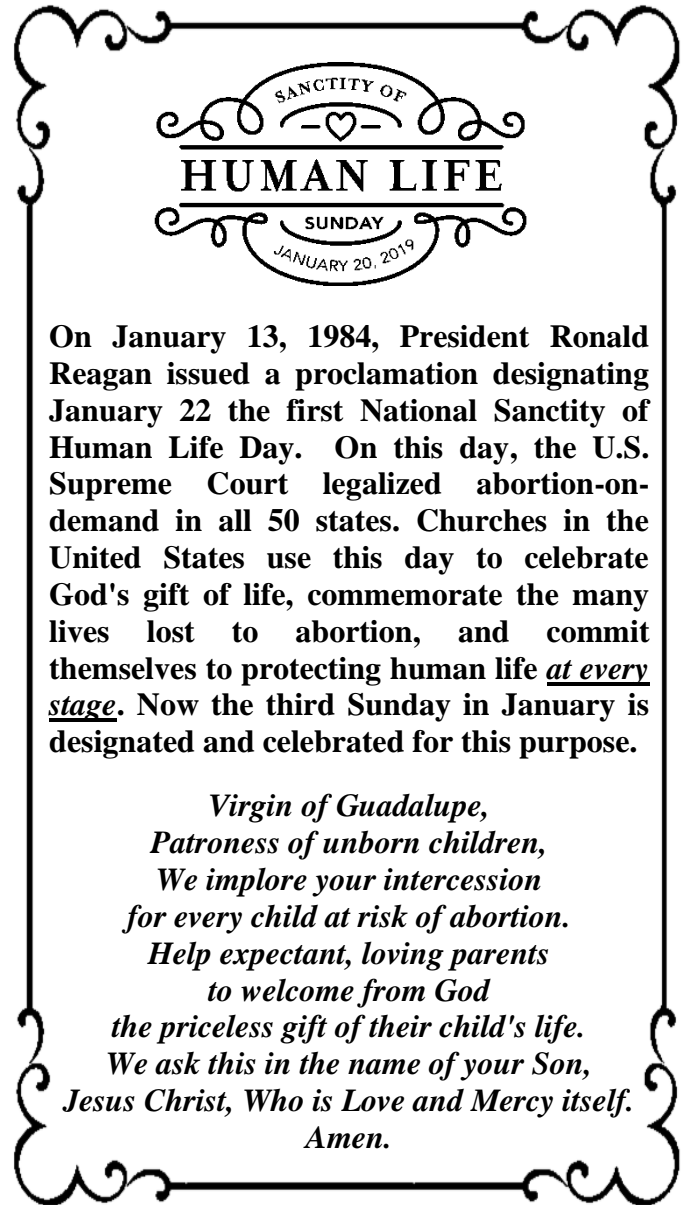

PROPAGATION OF FAITH – Next weekend is Propagation of Faith Sunday. Through your almsgiving and prayers, Catholic missionary priests, brothers and sisters are able to help preach the Gospel to non-Catholic countries. Your envelope is in your box. Please drop it in the regular collection.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION – Classes for Preschool through Grade 5 on January 23, 6:45 PM. A meal will be served.

Classes for Grades 6 through 11 next Sunday, January 27, 8:30 AM.

THE LORD'S LAUGHTER – Rev. Palmer Stiles and his wife, Rose, of Melbourne, FL, entered David's Shoe Repair Shop in Melbourne. The owner had recently become a Christian and had his baptismal certificate and this sign on the wall:

"I can heel you.
I can save your sole.
I will even dye for you."

SUNDAY REFLECTION

The film "Won't You Be My Neighbor?" tells the story of Fred Rogers and his TV program. At the film's conclusion, Mr. Rogers shared the following at a college commencement, "When I was a boy, my mother told me to always look for people who are helping. You will always find somebody who will try to help." When he asked the graduates to think about that somebody for them, many cited their mother as that encouraging person.

In today's Gospel, Mary encouraged her son to begin his public ministry at the wedding at Cana. Mary and Mr. Rogers may help us remember those who have cared about us beyond measure, encouraging us to be true to the best within us. (Deacon Dick Folger)
