

*June 6 (Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ)
June 13 (Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time)*

FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

Jesus, you call us all,
priest and penitent,
the homeless and CEOs,
immigrants and border agents,
Italians, Asian-Americans, Japanese.
Those who stand back and those who don't.
None of us are worthy, but you tell us,
"your soul shall be healed."

"This is my body; take it and eat."

Let your love course
through our lives and heal us.
Make us one in your one body.

FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

They will look upon him whom they have pierced.

Jesus of Nazareth, in his life, death and resurrection, reveals the nature of God to us as one so in love with humanity that he willingly suffered and died so as to enter fully into the human experience and redeem it. As we contemplate Jesus' sacred heart, pieced and broken at the crucifixion, we are called to care for those who suffer in our midst.

*Sacred Heart of Jesus, burning with love for us,
have mercy on us!*

11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (June 13)

Hidden Potential

The kingdom of God may start small but, like the mighty oak hidden in an acorn, its potential is enormous. Christ plants the seed of the kingdom – God's word – in our hearts. There, while we sleep and rise, day and night, it sprouts and grows, we know not how. "The Christian's life is a life of faith, founded on the word of God and nourished by it," Pope Benedict XVI tells us.

Let us read and hear God's word prayerfully each day and find nourishment in it, that his kingdom may grow within and among us. (Wade Wisler 2100 OCP. All rights reserved.)

MEMORARE TO ST. JOSEPH – Remember, O most pure spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, my greatest protector, Saint Joseph, that no one ever had recourse to your protection, or implored your aid without obtaining relief. Confident therefore in your goodness, I come before you. Do not turn down my petitions, foster father of the Redeemer, but graciously receive them. Amen.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS – The Eucharist satisfies our hunger for material things and kindles our desire to serve. It raises us from our comfortable and lazy lifestyle and reminds us that we are not only mouths to be fed, but also his hands, to be used to help feed others. (Corpus Christi Homily, June 14, 2020)

REFLECTIVE QUESTIONS – How well do I prepare my heart and mind to receive Jesus in the Eucharist? Do I take time to visit him in the tabernacle or at adoration to show him my love and gratitude?

THE LORD'S LAUGHTER – The subject of reincarnation came up at a church meeting. One overweight woman in the group said, "This idea of reincarnation sounds great. I would like to come back as a size seven." (via Rev. F. A. Bodde, St. Stephen Church, Port Huron, MI, The Joyful Noiseletter)
