

May 14 - Fifth Sunday of Easter

SUNDAY REFLECTIONS

The poetic words of William Shakespeare never lose their charm. In his famous play Romeo and Juliet we hear Juliet ask Romeo to base his promises of love on more than the mere orbits of the moon. Juliet says: "O, swear not by the moon, the inconstant moon that monthly changes in her circle orb, lest that thy love prove likewise variable."

In today's Gospel Jesus says: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Have faith in God and faith in me." At the end of the reading is his great promise: "Anything you ask in my name I will do." This is a promise that was made by our heavenly Father. Nothing could be more reliable. Nothing could be more eternal. (Deacon Dick Folger, Celebration)

THE LORD'S LAUGHTER – Little Johnny watched, fascinated, as his mother gently rubbed cold cream on her face. "Why are you rubbing cold cream on your face, Mommy?" he asked.

"To make myself beautiful," said his mother.

A few minutes later, she began removing the cream with a tissue.

"What's the matter?" asked Little Johnny. "Giving up?" (ChristiansUnite)

A little girl came home from school and said to her mother, "Mommy, today in school I was punished for something that I didn't do."

The mother exclaimed, "But that's terrible! I'm going to have a talk with your teacher about this ... by the way, what was it that you didn't do?"

The little girl replied, "My homework." (Richard Lederer)
