

September 29 – Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FORGIVE

For Heaven's Sake

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,

PAUSE

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

PAUSE

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Each Sunday, the Our Father will be prayed before Mass as shown above.*

*When the two pauses come, you are invited to silently pray for the grace to forgive; or you could speak the name of

SEASON OF CREATION – In his encyclical Laudato Si', On Care For Our Common Home, Pope Francis calls us to join him in embarking on a new path to shape the future of our planet. During the next few weeks you are encouraged to learn, share with others, and challenge yourself to take new actions every week with each theme.

WATER – Wherever you live, water is a necessity of life. 70% of the world is covered by water, but only 2.5% is freshwater, and only 1% of all freshwater is easily accessible. It is estimated that by 2025, two-thirds of the world's population will live in water-stressed regions as a result of use, growth, and climate change. Let's make changes for our future and unite with those lacking clean water as we work to conserve water in our daily life.

THE LORD'S LAUGHTER – "Someone has said that it took just a half century for movies to go from silent to unspeakable." (Jim Reed, The Joyful Noiseletter)
